

CANDID AFFAIRS.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—The second of a series of meetings given under the auspices of the "Union League" was held in the Camden Court House last evening. The hall was filled to overflowing by an enthusiastic audience.

Your Chairman has said I belong to the pestiferous body of men known as the Forty and Congress, called by the President of the United States "the pretended Congress, or so-called Congress."

As Governor Pollock was then introduced, and spoke in substance as follows:— I desire, my fellow-countrymen, to detain you but a very few moments, after the very able exposition you have had of the issues presented to your deliberation.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE CITY PUTS TO-MORROW.—There will be preaching in the leading city churches to-morrow as follows:—
